FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: LIFE'S A BITCH FOR UNISEX SALON

JANUARY 28, 2009

Village Voice music critic Tom Semioli has selected Like A Bitch, the debut album from bicoastal rockers Unisex Salon, as one of the top 10 albums of 2008. The album was ranked number seven by Semioli in the influential weekly newspaper's annual "Pazz & Jop Critic's Poll." Other artists whose 2008 releases made Semioli's top 10 include R.E.M., Shelby Lynne and Jonathan Richman. Featuring production by Gordon Raphael (The Strokes), Bryce Goggin (Phish), and Royston Langdon (Spacehog), Like A Bitch was mixed at House of Loud by Dan Korneff (Paramore) and mastered at Sterling Sound by Will Quinnell (Amy Winehouse).

The band will play a handful of East Coast dates in February, including February 12 at New York City's Mercury Lounge and February 15 at Philadelphia's North Star Bar.
