FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: A BITCH OF A DEBUT FROM UNISEX SALON

OCTOBER 20, 2008

Like A Bitch, the debut album from bicoastal rockers Unisex Salon, is out now on LA-based indie label Transphonic Records. Featuring production by Gordon Raphael (The Strokes), Royston Langdon (Spacehog) and Bryce Goggin (Phish), Like A Bitch was mixed at House of Loud by Dan Korneff (Paramore) and mastered at Sterling Sound by Will Quinnell (Amy Winehouse).

Founded by brothers Kenyon and Stephen Phillips and featuring Spacehog alums Royston Langdon and Jonny Cragg, Unisex Salon cranks out high-energy pop rock that sounds like a cross between the Beatles, Nirvana and mid-70s David Bowie. Androgynous front man Kenyon exudes the feral energy of a young Iggy Pop, while the steely guitar chops of older brother Stephen lend the band its bona fide rock cred. With members based in both NY and LA, the five-piece has a reputation on both coasts for its explosive live shows and fashionable following.

Unisex Salon is:

Kenyon Phillips vocals
Stephen Phillips guitar + backing vocals
Royston Langdon bass + backing vocals
Jonny Cragg drums + backing vocals
Brian Gumbel keys

The band will follow up its sold-out record release show on October 18 at The Mercury Lounge with special engagements in NY and LA throughout the fall and winter.
